3A Savings and Transitional Rules

Schedule 3 applies.

Division 2 Consumption threshold matters

4 Business premises—separate application of upper and lower consumption thresholds

- (1) This rule has effect for the purposes of section 6 (3) of the Law.
- (2) The upper consumption thresholds and lower consumption thresholds respectively apply separately in relation to each of the business premises of a business customer, except as provided by rule 5.

5 Business premises—aggregated application of upper consumption thresholds by agreement

- (1) This rule has effect for the purposes of section 6 (3) of the Law, and applies to the provision or proposed provision by a retailer of customer retail services to 2 or more business premises (the relevant premises) of a business customer, where:
 - (a) the customer is or would be a small customer in relation to at least one of the relevant premises; and
 - (b) the aggregate of the actual or estimated annual consumption level for the relevant premises is higher than:
 - (i) in the case of electricity—the upper consumption threshold prescribed by the Regulations in relation to electricity; or
 - (ii) in the case of gas—the upper consumption threshold prescribed by the Regulations in relation to gas.
- (2) The retailer and the business customer may enter into an agreement in writing to the effect that:
 - (a) the relevant premises are to be treated as aggregated for the purposes of Division 3 of this Part, Part 2 of these Rules and Part 2 of the Law; and
 - (b) if the parties so agree:
 - (i) Division 3 of this Part and Part 2 of these Rules; or
 - (ii) provisions of Division 3 of this Part and Part 2 of these Rules as specified in the agreement,do not apply to the relationship between the retailer and the business customer in relation to the relevant premises.
- (3) The explicit informed consent of the business customer is required for the transaction of entering into an agreement under this rule.

- (4) If the retailer and the business customer enter into such an agreement and the retailer has obtained the explicit informed consent of the customer, the agreement has effect according to its terms, and accordingly the upper consumption thresholds apply on an aggregated basis to the relevant premises.
- (5) The retailer must not of its own initiative treat the upper consumption thresholds as applying to 2 or more premises of a business customer on the basis of the aggregation of premises.

Note:

This subrule is a civil penalty provision for the purposes of the Law. (See the National Regulations, clause 6 and Schedule 1.)

- (6) To avoid doubt, this rule can apply in relation to all business premises of a business customer or to some but not all business premises of a business customer.

Division 3 Classification of customers

6 Classification

Customers are classified as follows:

- (a) retailer classification of a customer as:
 - (i) a residential customer; or
 - (ii) a business customer;
- (b) distributor classification of a business customer as:
 - (i) a small customer; or
 - (ii) a large customer;
- (c) distributor classification of a business customer who is a small customer as:
 - (i) a small market offer customer; or
 - (ii) not a small market offer customer.

7 Retailer initial classification of customers

- (1) A customer making a request to a retailer for the sale of energy to premises of the customer under a customer retail contract must, on request by the retailer, provide sufficient information to the retailer for the retailer to classify, on the basis of that information, the customer as a residential customer or a business customer in relation to the premises.
- (2) On receiving the information, the retailer must classify the customer accordingly.

- (3) The retailer must, as soon as practicable, notify the distributor of the classification of the customer under this rule.
- (4) The distributor must keep a record of the classification of the customer.

8 Retailer reclassification of customers

- (1) The financially responsible retailer for the premises of a customer may:
 - (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by the customer or the distributor,reclassify the customer as a residential customer or a business customer in relation to the premises after the formation of the customer retail contract for the premises.
- (2) The retailer may decline to accept a reclassification application if the retailer has classified or reclassified the customer in relation to the premises within the previous 12 month period, whether of its own initiative or on application.
- (3) The retailer must, as soon as practicable, notify the customer and the distributor of the reclassification of the customer under this rule or of the retailer's decision to refuse the reclassification application (if any) by the customer or distributor.
- (4) The distributor must keep a record of the reclassification of the customer.
- (5) The reclassification takes effect on the date of notification of both the customer and the distributor or on a later date specified in the notification.

9 Distributor initial classification of business customers

- (1) This rule applies to a customer who is a business customer in relation to premises, where the customer is not currently classified (or reclassified) by the distributor in relation to the premises.
- (2) On being notified by a retailer that the customer is a business customer, the distributor for the premises must classify the customer in relation to those premises:
 - (a) as a large customer or as a small customer; and
 - (b) if a small customer, as or as not a small market offer customer.
- (3) The distributor must, as soon as practicable, notify the retailer for the premises of the classification of the customer under this rule.
- (4) The distributor must keep a record of the classification of the customer.

10 Distributor reclassification of business customers

- (1) The distributor for the premises of a business customer may:
 - (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by the customer or the financially responsible retailer for the premises, reclassify the customer as a large customer or small customer or as not a small market offer customer in relation to the premises after the initial classification of the customer by the distributor in relation to the premises under rule 9.

- (2) The distributor may decline to accept a reclassification application if the distributor has classified or reclassified the customer in relation to the premises within the previous 12 month period, whether of its own initiative or on application.
- (3) The distributor must, as soon as practicable, notify the customer and the financially responsible retailer of the reclassification of the customer under this rule or of the distributor's decision to refuse the reclassification application (if any) by the customer or retailer.
- (4) The distributor must keep a record of the reclassification of the customer.
- (5) The reclassification takes effect on the date of notification of both the customer and the financially responsible retailer or on a later date specified in the notification.

11 Distributor classification and reclassification—requirements

- (1) This rule applies where a distributor makes a classification or reclassification in relation to a customer in relation to a premises.
- (2) The distributor must have regard to the annual consumption of energy at the premises during the previous 12 month period.
- (3) The distributor may estimate the likely annual consumption at the premises for the next 12 month period if:
 - (a) consumption data is available to the distributor, but the distributor reasonably considers that the data does not accurately reflect the likely consumption at the premises during the next 12 month period; or
 - (b) no consumption data for the premises is available to the distributor for the whole of the previous 12 month period.
- (4) An estimate under this rule may be based on:

- (a) the average usage of energy by a comparable customer over a corresponding period; or
- (b) other information about the customer's likely consumption of energy, whether provided by the customer or the customer's retailer or in accordance with accepted industry practice.
