

Part 2 AER to provide information, and promote informed discussion, on regulatory issues

4 Interpretation

In this Part:

regulatory issues means matters concerning any aspect of the AER's powers or functions under the Law.

5 Discussion papers on regulatory issues

- (1) The AER may prepare, for public information or discussion, papers on regulatory issues.
- (2) The papers are to be published:
 - (a) on the AER's website; and
 - (b) in any other way the AER considers appropriate.

6 Submissions, comments and public discussions

- (1) The AER may invite written comments or submissions from the public on particular regulatory issues.
- (2) The AER may:
 - (a) appoint a time and place for public discussion of particular regulatory issues between representatives of the AER and the public; and
 - (b) invite public participation in the discussion.
- (3) Comments or submissions may be invited, or a public discussion held, whether or not the relevant issues have been the subject of a paper published under this Part.
- (4) An invitation under this rule is to be published:
 - (a) on the AER's website; and
 - (b) in any other way the AER considers appropriate.
