

Agenda

COGATI access and charging review – public forum

Monday 8th July 2019
 10:00am – 3:00pm (AEST)
 The Hotel Windsor
 111 Spring Street, Melbourne

Time	Item	Presenter
9:30am	Registration and tea/coffee
10.00am	Welcome	Suzanne Falvi, AEMC
10:10am	The need for transmission access reform This session will discuss the context of the review, including the current issues facing the NEM and how access reform will address them.	Charles Pople, AEMC
10:30am	Our proposal for access reform This session will provide an overview of our proposal to reform the transmission access framework, including key aspects of reform as well as the proposed implementation timeframe.	Victoria Mollard, AEMC
11:00am	International perspectives This session will provide an international perspective on the effectiveness of access reform in another jurisdiction, including the effects of locational pricing and hedging products on market outcomes.	James Flexman, Mercury
11:20am	Panel discussion This session will allow the opportunity for participants to ask questions of the Panel regarding proposed access reform.	Charles Pople Victoria Mollard James Flexman
12:30pm	Lunch
1:15pm	Designing an access regime This session will provide an overview of key design elements of the proposed access framework.	Jess Boddington, AEMC
1:35pm	Panel discussion This session will allow the opportunity for participants to ask questions of the Panel.	Charles Pople Victoria Mollard Jess Boddington
2:00pm	Roundtable discussion This discussion will seek stakeholder input on key design elements of the proposed access regime.
2:55pm	Closing remarks and next steps	Suzanne Falvi