Division 1 Preliminary

148 Definitions

In this Part:

exempt customer means a person to whom an exempt seller sells energy and who would be a retail customer of the seller if the seller were a retailer;

exemption means an exemption from the requirement to hold a retailer authorisation;

retail customer means a person who is a customer of a retailer.

Division 2 AER power to exempt

149 Individual exemptions

- (1) The AER may decide to grant an individual exemption to a particular person.
- (2) An individual exemption comes into force from the date on which the instrument of exemption is issued by the AER under rule 162(2).

150 Deemed exemptions

- (1) The AER may, in accordance with the retail consultation procedure, determine a class of persons in respect of whom a deemed exemption is taken to be in force.
- (2) A deemed exemption comes into force from the date the determination is made, or on the date specified in the determination, by the AER specifying the class of exempted persons.
- (3) The AER may from time to time amend determinations under this rule in accordance with the retail consultation procedure.

151 Registrable exemptions and registered exemptions

- (1) The AER may, in accordance with the retail consultation procedure, determine a class of persons in respect of whom an exemption (a registrable exemption) is registrable.
- (2) A registrable exemption becomes a registered exemption in respect of a particular person when the person is registered as such on the Public Register of Authorised Retailers and Exempt Sellers.
- (3) A registered exemption comes into force from the date the person who is subject to the exemption is registered as such on the Public Register of Authorised Retailers and Exempt Sellers.

- (4) The AER may from time to time amend determinations under this rule in accordance with the retail consultation procedure.

152 Conditions generally

- (1) The AER may impose conditions in relation to the sale of energy by an exempt seller or class of exempt sellers to exempt customers.
- (2) Conditions may be imposed:
 - (a) in respect of individual exemptions—under rule 158; and
 - (b) in respect of deemed exemptions and registered exemptions—under rule 153.
- (3) Without limitation, a condition may require an exempt seller or class of exempt sellers to abide by specified obligations derived from energy laws and applicable to retailers, with any modifications specified in the condition, as if:
 - (a) an exempt seller were a retailer; and
 - (b) the exempt customers of an exempt seller were retail customers of a retailer.
- (4) Where the AER determines that it is appropriate to impose a condition in relation to prices to be charged to exempt customers at residential premises by an exempt seller, the AER must ensure that those customers are charged no more than the standing offer price of the local area retailer.
- (5) The AER may impose conditions on exempt sellers for or with respect to installing, maintaining and reading of meters of exempt customers in accordance with jurisdictional energy legislation.

153 Conditions for deemed exemptions and registered exemptions

(1) Conditions

If the AER makes a determination under rule 150 for a class of deemed exemptions or under rule 151 for a class of registrable exemptions, the AER may impose conditions in relation to the sale of energy by exempt sellers of that class to exempt customers by specifying the conditions as part of the determination.

(2) When conditions may be imposed

Conditions may be imposed when the determination is first made or during the currency of the determination.

(3) Variation or revocation of condition

The AER may, by way of amendment of the determination, vary or revoke a condition.

(4) Application of new or varied conditions

Subject to the terms of the determination imposing or varying a condition:

- (a) a condition imposed during the currency of the determination applies to persons who already are exempt sellers under the determination (as well as to persons who afterwards become exempt sellers under the determination); and

- (b) a condition varied during the currency of the determination applies as varied to persons who already are exempt sellers under the determination (as well as to persons who afterwards become exempt sellers under the determination).

(5) Application of revoked conditions

Subject to the terms of the amending determination that revokes a condition, a revoked condition ceases to apply to persons who already are exempt sellers under the determination (as well as to persons who afterwards become exempt sellers under the determination).

If the AER grants an application for an individual exemption, the instrument of exemption must specify the form of energy to which the exemption relates.

- (a) stating the decision; and
