3 Interpretation

In these rules:

access arrangement information – See rule 42.

access arrangement period for an applicable access arrangement means any of the following periods that may be applicable to the access arrangement:

- (a) the period between the commencement of the access arrangement and the commencement of the first revision of the access arrangement;
- (b) if the first revision of the access arrangement has not yet taken effect – the period between the commencement of the access arrangement and the revision commencement date for the access arrangement;
- (c) if revision of the access arrangement prior to its expiry is not contemplated – the period between the commencement of the access arrangement and the expiry date for the access arrangement;
- (d) the period between the commencement of the last revision of the access arrangement and the revision commencement date for the access arrangement;
- (e) if the access arrangement has been revised but further revision prior to its expiry is not contemplated – the period between revision commencement date of the last revision of the access arrangement and the expiry date for the access arrangement;

Note:

One should bear in mind that the actual date on which a revision takes effect may differ from a revision commencement date stated in the access arrangement (which is a date fixed some time in advance as the intended date for the revision to take effect). The revision commencement date is relevant to the definition of the access arrangement period only until the revision actually takes effect and the date thus crystallises.
